This certificate program is offered state-wide at over 100 sites and centers, as well as The University of Maine at Augusta and Bangor. The Child & Youth Care Practitioner Program will elevate the professional aspirations of persons who provide direct services to youth in group homes, residential treatment shelters, juvenile corrections, foster care, early childhood education and community outreach support programs. This program serves as the focal point for a statewide Child & Youth Care Certification model.

Advising Notes:

To earn a certificate, 50% of the required courses must be taken at UMA.

Students are encouraged to contact their faculty advisor and the Advising Center for academic advising and support services throughout their stay at UMA.
