

Adjustments to your Financial Aid Award

Your financial aid may be adjusted if your financial situation changes or you receive additional educational assistance. If you have special circumstances that you feel we should consider, please contact our office.

You must report:

- Funds you receive or are awarded to assist you with any educational expense which is not reported on the financial aid award offer;
- Changes to your credit hours;
- Withdrawal from all classes.
- The maximum number of semesters a student can receive a Pell Grant from any and all colleges will be reduced to the equivalent of 12 full-time semesters.

Receiving your Financial Aid

Your financial aid will be credited to your student account once:

- You submit all requested documentation; and
- Your registered credit hours match the credit hours listed on your award offer.
- Note: You are responsible for any balance not paid by your financial aid.

*Students previously notified of non-compliance with Satisfactory Academic Progress will have aid funds withheld until all current semester grades are reported to the UMA Registrar's Office and compliance is determined.

Student Financial Services automatically releases all eligible students a refund of any credit balance (an overpayment of aid funds in excess of your tuition and fees) in time for the first day of classes. Refunds are for the purchase of your books, supplies and other educational expenses. Credit balances that occur during the semester will be released to students within 10 days. All administrative costs assessed to your student account including late, payment plan, or other penalty fees will automatically be paid with any excess financial aid, unless you notify us otherwise in writing.

Federal Direct Loan

A Federal Direct Loan may be listed on your award offer. If a Federal Direct Loan is not listed and you want to be considered, you must call the office to make the loan request.

To ACTIVATE the processing of a Direct Federal Loan, all students must:

- Accept your loan offer via MaineStreet;
- Indicate the amount of the loan offer that you want to borrow for the entire academic year on MaineStreet. You must contact the Student Financial Services to discuss additional eligibility.
- Plan to enroll at least half-time (6 credits) each semester;
- Not be in default or owe a repayment of any educational funds.

Types of Federal Direct Loans

- Federal Subsidized Direct Loans are need based. The payment of the principle is deferred and the federal government pays your interest while you are enrolled at least half-time (6 credits) each semester. PLEASE NOTE: The Consolidated Appropriations Act of 2012 SUSPENDS the grace period portion of the interest-free benefit for subsidized loans for which the first disbursement is made on or after July 1, 2012.
- Federal Unsubsidized Direct Loans are non-need based. The payment of the principle is deferred while you are enrolled at least half-time; however, you must pay your interest to your lender while you are in school or have it added to your principle balance of your loan.

Should You Borrow?

Before you borrow, you will want to evaluate your need for a loan. Things to consider:

- Do you need to borrow? Have you estimated your tuition and living costs? Does your income and/or other aid meet your budget without the loan? Can you use a UMA Payment Plan instead?
- Have you considered what your average salary will be when you graduate? Will it be enough to cover your living expenses and your student loan payments? Visit the Loan Payment Calculator at:
www.finaid.org/calculators/
- Do you have a plan for repayment if you should need to withdraw from UMA before you graduate? Will you be able to repay what you have already borrowed given your current circumstances?
