2022-2023 Satisfactory Academic Appeal Application (SAP)

The purpose of this form is to allow you to appeal your notification of financial aid suspension. This suspension is a result of not meeting the federal mandated minimum Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) requirements. Students may obtain a copy of UMA's SAP policy on the university website at <https://www.uma.edu/financial/policies/sap/>

NOTE: This is not an academic action. This only pertains to your financial aid eligibility.

Who is eligible to appeal? Every student has the right to appeal in writing if mitigating circumstances beyond your control impeded your academic progress for the specific enrollment period when the unsatisfactory academic progress occurred. Mitigating circumstances for review may include: medical issues, family crisis, or a death in the family.

How to appeal: Complete ALL sections of the appeal and return the signed form with required documentation to:
Office of Financial Aid Email: umafa@maine.edu

Your completed application and documentation must be submitted no later than two weeks prior to the start of classes of the semester you wish the appeal. Applications that are not complete will not be reviewed.

You may submit an additional appeal letter explaining your situation, however, the appeal will not be reviewed until this completed appeal form is received.

 PLEASE NOTE: Appeals will be considered incomplete until all required documentation has been received.

Documentation: Students appealing based on mitigating circumstances are required to submit third party documentation to support the appeal.

- A. Medical Issue:
 - a. Documentation must be on official letterhead and include: Credentials (ex: MD, DO, LCSW, PA, NP, Psychologist), Date of Diagnosis, and applicable history
- B. Death in the family:
 - a. Student must submit a copy of the obituary or death certificate
- C. Family Crisis:
 - a. Documentation examples include court documentation, police reports, etc.
- D. Maximum Time Frame to Complete Degree Program
 - a. Student must submit a detailed plan of study signed by their academic advisor

Once the review is complete, the student will notified via email of the decision. If approved, a contract will be attached to the email. It is the student's responsibility to review the document, sign and return it to our office in a timely manner.
